Response Questions for, "God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering," (Gen. 3:21; 22:7, 8; Exod. 12:12-14, 21-28)

Basic Ideas from, "God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering." The Holy Spirit is calling to us from this passage to consider three ideas.

1. The Holy Spirit desires for us to know He will keep His word and arrive on time.
2. The Holy Spirit desires for us to choose to wait with expectancy for His arrival both today and in the future.
3. The Holy Spirit desires for us to feel the joy of His arrival each and every day.

Basic Questions from, "God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering."

1. Was the coming redeemer written into God's story from the beginning?
2. What three functions will the coming one fulfill?
3. What does the animal skin in Genesis 3:21 imply?
4. Why was Abel's offering acceptable to God and Cain's not?
5. Why the story of Abraham offering up Isaac? Is Abraham's emotion part of God's intent? Does God want us to "feel" Abraham's pain?
6. What do all of the pictures have in common?
7. What deliverance are we waiting for in His coming?
8. How might we live in such a way as to anticipate and expect His coming?

The Basic Application from, "God will provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering."

1. Have you met God today?

From the very beginning God has made a way for His people to come into communion with Himself. Unless we accept God's way, we will be barred from His presence forever. You and I no longer need to bring a blood sacrifice. God has offered up His Son once and for all. All you must do is accept the blood sacrifice offered for you. Will you accept Him?

- You are a sinner who needs a Savior.
- The offering has been made. All you must do is accept what God has done.
- If you receive His gift, you will be saved from your sin and you will spend an eternity with God.

Continued on the other side...

- If you reject His gift, you will continue in your lost estate and you will spend an eternity separated from God.
- The choice is yours.

2. Are you waiting for God's arrival?

If you have met God for the saving of your soul, are you expecting to meet Him each and every day for continued communion?

3. Do you wait for Him to show up each day?
4. Let us not forget why He came and what it meant for His people.
5. How might you remember?
