Response Questions for The Gospel of Jesus Christ in Galilee – Early Galilean Ministry – The Servant's Men

Basic Ideas from Mark 1:16-20.

1. The Holy Spirit desires for us to know we are disciples, and that forsaking all to follow Jesus is worth everything created.
2. The Holy Spirit desires for us to choose to be who we are in Christ.
3. The Holy Spirit desires for us to feel the joy of resting in His person and His work.

Basic Questions from Mark 1:16-20.

1. Who does Jesus call to follow?
2. What does this invitation to follow look like in the believing?
3. As a believer, I am a disciple of Jesus Christ. Am I awake to this truth?
4. Is following Him worth it?
5. Is the message of repentance and faith different from the action taken by those initial disciples?
6. Think about the following material and discuss its application to you as a follower of Jesus Christ.

Basic Application from Mark 1:16-20.

1. It is not my desire for us to live with an overbearing sense of introspection, but I do believe the Holy Spirit would call us to see how who we are in Christ is showing itself in our human flesh. The life I live in the flesh is His life. "Is this what He looks like?" In our failure we are to see His grace as sufficient and in our weakness we are to see His strength manifested.
2. The Holy Spirit is calling us back to the simplicity and sufficiency of Jesus Christ. It is a call to de-clutter our existence. I recognize that we often think in terms of getting rid of our material "junk," but I believe it is dealing more with our emotional and religious "junk." There are too many idols of our own making blocking our pursuit of Jesus Christ. What might some of those "idols" look like? May today be a day where we come back to the simplicity and sufficiency of who He is, what He has done, and who we are in Him.
