

Acts 2:12 And they all continued in amazement and great perplexity, saying to one another,

"What Does This Mean?"

Response Questions for, "The Harvest has come" (Mark 4:26-29 [No Gospel parallels])

Basic Ideas from Mark 4:26-29.

1. Holy Spirit desires for us to know Jesus will win and His purpose will be fulfilled.
2. The Holy Spirit desires for us to choose Him above all else and to align ourselves with the great purpose of God in advancing and establishing His kingdom on earth.
3. The Holy Spirit desires for us to feel the joy of knowing the victory of God.

Basic Questions from Mark 4:26-29.

1. Will we gladly be a part of this movement and mystery or resist it? The outcome, however, is inevitable.
2. What does it mean to accept this truth by faith? What might this look like in daily living?

The Basic Application from Mark 4:26-29.

1. Let us sow the seed widely, generously, and expectantly.
2. Let us sow with patience knowing that God triumphs.
3. Let us sow with hope knowing that God triumphs.
4. Let us trust God for the harvest.
5. Let us live prepared for the unavoidable harvesting by God.
6. Let us rest in the certain victory of God to save everyone who wills to come and who He chooses to save.

Practical Considerations:

1. What we can do and what we cannot do.
2. What we can know and what we cannot know.
