

This is Jesus, the King of the Jews

Matthew 2:1-6, 27:27-31

Introduction:

The Gospel of Matthew [as with all Books of the Bible] is a carefully and intentionally crafted literary work. It is not random or stream of consciousness writing [Capt.'s log]. There is logic, intent, purpose, and significance to the Gospel. Matthew presents Jesus as King throughout his Gospel. It is because of Matthew's evidence that we conclude Jesus is the fulfillment of all Old Testament promises, prophecies, and pictures.

Outline:

- I. His Structure
- II. His Usage of "Kingship" Language
- III. His Usage of the OT
- IV. His Imagery

Does It Really Matter?

- Where are we?
- Where are you?
- Jesus is King: Do you believe this?