Response Questions for, "You and Your Bible," (Nehemiah 8:1-12)

Basic Ideas from "You and Your Bible."

The Holy Spirit is calling to us from this passage to consider three ideas.

1. The Holy Spirit desires for us to know Him through His written Word.
2. The Holy Spirit desires for us to choose to read the Story He has written.
3. The Holy Spirit desires for us to feel the joy of placing ourselves into His Story.

Basic Questions from "You and Your Bible."

1. What does the term "verbally inspired" mean?
2. Has daily Bible reading always been a part of the Christian walk?
3. Who should read the Bible?
4. List a "handful of reasons" as to why believers should read the Bible.
5. How does the Bible describe itself?
6. What can each of these descriptions solicit within His people?
7. How do I as a believer become translucent without anything to hide and with all to be seen?
8. Does anything else written have the kind of power inherent in the Word of God? Can anything else written do for us what the Word does?
9. How can we foster and encourage a desire for the Word in our own life?
10. What can be a proper response to the Word of God in a public setting?
11. If a fellow believer told you they always felt defeated, what advice would you offer them? Where would you turn for strength and victory?
12. What do you think is the key factor behind all Bible reading?
13. Look at Mark 4:35-41. Read it several times and ask yourself the questions of who, what, where, when, how, and why as described above. Become a detective. Write them down and share them at our next meeting.
